

UPDATE FROM COSMIC AWARENESS COMMUNICATIONS

On September 11th, Will and I spoke, and after going over various items of concern, we agreed the best course at this time is for him to focus on his business, Rainbow Phoenix and part ways with Cosmic Awareness Communications, at least for now. The bottom line for CAC is we had a philosophical fork in the road; CAC cannot and will not refer to any one interpreter as "The Voice of Awareness", as it contradicts one of the basic tenets we and previous Awareness organizations have operated from: that Awareness speaks through everyone/everything. Everyone has Cosmic Awareness in them, and one of the main messages given by Awareness throughout these many, many years of publishing is to question gurus and those who claim to have The Truth. It isn't about worshipping a guru or an Ascended Master; it is about growing inwardly and becoming a clearer embodiment of who, in fact, we really are.

So there will now be two organizations running roughly parallel to give out messages from Cosmic Awareness. We will continue to print the material we have on hand from Will but as we go forward, we will not have any new readings by him, at least for the time being. We're both still working for the same boss—but are distinct and separate operations. Our last words to each other were "I love you" and wishing each other well. Thank you for your work for CAC, Will. You did some very fine work and helped many.

CAC's first contact with Will was in 1981, when a friend, Elaine Amaron referred him to us. At that time, he was living in England and making sculptures (several of which are on display here at HQ). He won a tarot reading from Sam Millar in 1982, which was interesting in that years later, Sam and he were up here in the office and Sam handed over his duty of watching out for me to Will, via the cards. I still get tears in my eyes when I remember that scene. Sam passed over in 1995, and some time after that, after Lady K retired, Will took over doing tarot readings for CAC members and me personally. I always found his readings to be very helpful. He also did some past life regression counseling over the phone with me. That was good, but my arm got tired from holding the phone to my ear for over an hour. This was back in the pre speakerphone and blue tooth technology era.

Paul Shockley, Will Berlinghof & Avaton

Will Berlinghof & Paul Shockley

In 1991, Avaton and I visited England and met a number of CAC members, Elaine and Will among them. We visited Stonehenge together, as well as Glastonbury and its Tor and Chalice Well. As we left, we affirmed we would be meeting again, and Will visited us in Olympia at least twice after that. One time he and Chris Locke were here when Paul Shockley was up for sessions and they sat in on one (or maybe two—they sort of run together for me, having done them for 25 years) and he was up one other time when he and Avaton had gone out somewhere. Will was in the car while Avaton was in the store when a fire truck bumped into the car, so Will got the free 'ride' from the experience. No serious damage, but memorable. My broad brush memory may have some details wrong by now, but the adventure of the day was not in doubt!

I had a number of personal readings with Will. I really liked them because I felt like I was the star in a movie—all about, well, ME! Will's good nature has made working with him over the years a pleasure and I really appreciated that when CAC did not have enough funds to pay him at the time of each reading, he let me keep a running balance that we kept working on till I finally got the balance due to Will paid off in full in 2015.

Cosmic Awareness Communications will continue to serve all of humanity to the best of our ability. Despite our philosophical differences with Rainbow Phoenix, we know that Cosmic Awareness supports the highest and best in and for all. We will take this new phase of the work one step at a time.
