

Benjamin Fulford - October 6, 2014: The white hats control the weather, now it is time to control the rest

 hipknowsys.blogspot.com/2014/10/benjamin-fulford-october-6-2014-white.html

As this article goes to press in Tokyo, Japan, Monday, October 6th, 2014, the night skies above are clear, following a sunny day of idyllic mild autumn weather. The problem was the Japanese meteorological agency (JMA) and all the corporate news outlets were saying Tokyo was supposed to be hit by a monster typhoon Phanfone today. Instead, all there was was some mildly heavy rain overnight with little or no wind. More remarkably, the JMA satellite imagery showed what appeared to be a wedge cutting the typhoon in half before it hit Tokyo.

Do you ever get that feeling of Déjà vu? Do you ever get that feeling of Déjà vu? This is not the first time a monster typhoon has vanished just before hitting Tokyo. On July 8th of this year super typhoon Neoguri was also supposed to devastate Tokyo but instead, as an astronaut watching from the International Space Station noted, “it was cut in half” and arrived as a moderate rainstorm.

Many other previous “super typhoons” have similarly vanished before hitting heavily populated areas in recent years.

In the US, no hurricane has landed in nearly 9 years (Sandy Hook was something else), something that is completely without precedent.

This is no coincidence. About 9 years ago, some people claiming to represent US special forces told the White Dragon Society they had seized the US weather warfare facilities from the cabal after a heavy gunfight. It seems they are now using the weather modification facilities to save lives, not take lives.

If any readers are still not aware that weather modification technology is real and has a long history, they should take note of the US/Soviet treaty of 1978 banning the use of weather modification for warfare.

Now that they have stopped weather modification terror attacks, it is time for the agency white hats to make another big move against the cabal. This time a clear target has emerged. If this target is hit with a bold military move, it will mean the end of cabal rule and freedom for the planet. A Pentagon psychological warfare expert who contacted this writer last week said the obvious target was the Nazionist controlled Middle Eastern oil Monarchies. The officer, Second Lieutenant Scott Bennett of the 11th Psychological Operations Battalion, opened this Pandora’s box when he was given the job of uncovering terrorist financing. His entire story can be read here:

The gist of it is that he went through a long Kafkaesque nightmare because he took his job too seriously and actually traced the source of terrorist financing to his erstwhile employers Booz Allen Hamilton, as well as the Union Bank of Switzerland and Saudi Arabia. He soon figured out that neither the US Congress, nor the US Central Command nor any of the other people at the top of his chain of command were actually interested in cutting off terrorist financing.

Bennett, having been forced to watch movies of Americans being tortured to death by the “Al-Qaeda” (now ISIS) terrorists he was supposed to be fighting, joins the long list of military and ex-military who realize they have been conned into fighting for criminals.

Well, now a clear military target has emerged and a comprehensive solution to the never ending “war on terror” is available. As the cabal puppet leaders like US President Barack Hussein Obama say, an alliance must be built to attack ISIS. However, forensic analysis by the UK’s MI6 and other intelligence make it clear ISIS is run out of Jerusalem and financed by Saudi Arabia and Qatar.

So, if Nato is serious about ending fundamentalist pseudo-Islamic terror, they have a clear target. All they need to do is support the 1.5 million man strong secular Islamist Turkish army in a move on Saudi Arabia and the other gulf puppet monarchies. Putting these countries back under the historical Turkish umbrella will immediately cut off all flow of Middle Eastern petro-dollars to Nazi/Zionist controlled Western mega-banks. The flow of Middle Eastern oil money could then be redirected via the white hats for peaceful purposes.

Such a move would also enormously strengthen the West financially vis a vis the rising Asian powers. The Russians and Chinese would accept such a move as long as it led to a cut off of terrorists attacks they experience and as long as it did not threaten their own energy interests.

The Israelis would be able to live in complete security as a Jewish autonomous zone within the expanded Turkish republic. They would also have to choose between either accepting a two-state solution with the Palestinians or, paying vast sums of reparation money to buy them out of their remaining pockets of land within Israel.

In any case, if the white hats of the West do not make such a bold move, it is game over. A recent analysis by a group known as the Geneva Report provides convincing numerical evidence that world debt is increasing far faster than world economic growth can pay for it and so, a global default looms.

Also, the usual psy-ops and “color revolutions” the Nazionist rulers of the West have used to keep governments in line are just not working any more. The murderous agents provocateurs sent to kill civilians in the Eastern Ukraine are now being systematically hunted down and killed. For the Slavs, it is pay-back for what happened to Yugoslavia.

In China too, attempts to stir up trouble are not getting anywhere. The so-called “Umbrella revolution” in Hong Kong is fizzling out. When the amount of demonstrators dwindled to a few hundred, some “triad gangsters” showed up and started beating the demonstrators. This was followed by a massive social media campaign saying “help, poor student protesters are being attacked by gangsters and the police are doing nothing.” It is almost certain these gangsters were paid by the Nazionists to boost protester numbers by creating sympathy. It is an old trick but it is not working as well as it used to.

Likewise, attempts to stir up trouble between North and South Korea are no longer working. Last week saw a surprise visit by a senior North Korean delegation to South Korea. According to a top communist Chinese agent, North Korea's de facto leader is General O Kuk Ryol, a Russian and Chinese speaking intelligence officer who is very close to the ruling Kim dynasty. Kim Jong Un is more of a figure-head, who has not appeared in public for over a month because of a foot operation, he said. In any case, the North Koreans want peace, prosperity, and the harmonious reunification of the Korean peninsula, not war.

In Japan, as well, cabal attempts to stir up war feelings under the Abe slave regime have backfired. Abe and his regime have lost public support because of it. Furthermore, the Americans have been told by their Chinese creditors to jerk Abe's chain and they did, which is why the Japanese regime has stopped its China baiting.

The other big cabal campaign is the ongoing so-called ebola outbreak. This however, is not producing the expected panic and obedience the cabal expected. People just do not believe their pandemic story. Overall, it is not a happy time to be a Nazionist cabalist.

In the back-ground, representatives of both the P2 Freemason lodge and the British committee of 300 are trying to negotiate a new financial system that reflects current global realities. They are also seriously considering a jubilee, or one-time write off of all debts, public and private for the entire planet.

The White Dragon Society is proposing setting up a meritocratically staffed future planning agency with an annual budget of trillions of dollars to plan a massive campaign to end poverty, stop environmental destruction and build a new age of wonder. Such an agency would absorb the healthy parts of the World Bank, the IMF and the BIS. It would work in harmony with the new BRICS economic institutions.

It is not clear when public announcements of the changes will be made but, there is a growing understanding among power brokers that love and friendship is winning over the traditional cabal control mechanisms of fear, hate, greed and lust.
