Fascinating new information from Cobra, particularly regarding plasma and the plasmatic plane.

“There are quantum singularity wormholes within the plasmatic plane and in the occult terminology they are called the Tunnels of Set. Those wormholes contain strangelet and toplet bombs and they are tied to the physical Black Stone in the Long Island location. This is the main reason why clearing of the plasma scalar network and the Veil is taking so long.

“There is another plane similar to plasma, but on a much higher octave, between the higher mental (manasic) and the buddhic plane. That plane is called the buddhi-manas membrane and separates realms of Oneness from realms of duality... This membrane is the first thing that separated us from the Source... The density of this membrane will be greatly reduced after the Event when the cosmic anomaly of darkness will be finally cleared.

“As Chimera are slowly losing their power, interesting intel leaks are occurring:

“The Eastern Alliance is making significant progress on the financial front to break the dominance of the petrodollar system:

“...the Ebola scare does not have an impact that the Cabal was hoping for and all their attempts to create a global war are also falling apart.

“I have been contacted by a group of writers that have had contact with the Indonesian and other eastern Asian Agarthan networks from 2009-2013. That group has suggested that people do not wait passively for the Event and have given many grassroots ideas what can be done:”

Plasma and the Planetary Situation Update

Clearing of the Chimera group continues. Their Long Island fortress can not be removed so easily because it is tied to the plasma scalar network which forms the backbone of the Veil, extending to the altitude of up to 8.6 miles above the surface. This is precisely the point where the Chimera and the Archons are joining forces to defend their quarantine Earth.

To really explain what is going on, we will have to deal with very deep occult knowledge that might be beyond science fiction for some people.

There is another plane similar to plasma, but on a much higher octave, between the higher mental (manasic) and the buddhic plane. That plane is called the buddhi-manas membrane and separates realms of Oneness from realms of duality. This membrane was created as a result of torsion forces between the mental and buddhic (intuitional) plane as a direct consequence of cosmic anomaly when the universe was created. This membrane is the first thing that separated us from the Source when we descended into Creation as sparks of consciousness long time ago in galactic history. The density of this membrane will be greatly reduced after the Event when the cosmic anomaly of darkness will be finally cleared.

As Chimera are slowly losing their power, interesting intel leaks are occurring:

The Eastern Alliance is making significant progress on the financial front to break the dominance of the petrodollar system:

As you probably know, the Ebola scare does not have an impact that the Cabal was hoping for and all their attempts to create a global war are also falling apart.

The Islamic State, a Jesuit creation, is having a lot of attention in the mass media. One purpose of the Archons and their Jesuit puppets in their occult war against the people is to associate the name of Goddess Isis with their dark creation in the minds of the masses. Therefore I would suggest all alternative media stop using the name ISIS for the Islamic State, but rather [rather] use ISIL or Islamic State instead. You can also sign this petition:
